Theatre and Performance closes season with 'On the Razzle'

April 2, 2013

The Theatre and Performance program at Georgia Southern University concludes the spring semester with the comedic farce On the Razzle by Tom Stoppard.

On the Razzle tells the story of two clerks who want to experience adventure in the Big City while they still can. The only thing wrong with their plan: The two clerks keep winding up in the same locations as their boss!

Audiences will be laughing out loud as the characters engage in several shenanigans, have problems with mistaken identities, and go through the always-complicated issue of romance. On the Razzle is a must-see for anyone who enjoys a good laugh and a great night at the theater.

On the Razzle features University favorites Eric Carter, Patrick Galleta, Amanda Sterling, Karen Aquire and many more.

On the Razzle will opens April 10 and runs through April 13. All shows begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center on Georgia Southern's campus.

The cost for student tickets is $5; faculty, staff and general admission tickets are $10. Contact the Performing Arts Center's box office at 478-7999 for ticket information.
